CLIP #7

Listen: "YouTube Kids Playlist" – Discover new online music videos!

Parents: Did you know you can set up a free account for "completely safe viewings" of YouTube media? Go to <https://www.youtubekids.com/>. Mr. Fox took an entire afternoon off perusing these recordings, a little something for everyone (a flute player, cellists, sax quartet, etc. who will "knock your socks off!") The marble machine is just for fun... one link is a machine, the other a live band. What is "looping?" Registration may be required to access links:

Share: "Whack-a-Note" Name these notes... fast! <http://artsedge.kennedy-center.org/interactives/steprightup/whackanote/>
Like "Easy Classical Music Games" in CLIP #6, teach someone basic notation... or just have fun with it yourself.

Create: "Song or Music Writing" – A Few "Basics" for Getting Started with Composing (sample websites)

- Level 1: Writing a Melody <https://www.musictheoryacademy.com/composing-music/writing-a-melody/>
- Level 2: How to Write a Song in 10 Steps <https://mysongcoach.com/write-a-song-in-ten-steps/>
- Level 3: Composition for Dummies <https://www.dummies.com/art-center/music/music-composition-for-dummies-cheat-sheet/>
- Level 3: 15 Ways to Create Musical Ideas & Crush Creative Block <https://www.edmprod.com/15-ways-to-generate-ideas/>

Inspire: “Music Exploration and Reflections” Maintain a journal to keep track of your work. First, download the original, full-size two-page document (so that the links will work with “click and go”) from the SHJO.clips page. (Word file is best so you can write on it; if needed, a PDF version is also available) The grid on the second page will allow you to write down your progress, time spent, and reflections. You act as your own music teacher – seeking out ways to enrich yourself with new knowledge of music.

(This is a picture... links will not work. You need to download the document from <http://www.shjo.org/clips>)
